

CORSO DI LAUREA MAGISTRALE IN ANTROPOLOGIA CULTURALE ED ETNOLOGIA

JOÃO DE PINA CABRAL

REVISITING DE MARTINO'S ECUMENICAL ETHNOCENTRISM
IN A NEW AGE OF EUROPEAN DOUBT

João de Pina Cabral is Research Professor at the Institute of Social Sciences of the University of Lisbon and Emeritus Professor at the University of Kent (UK). Over the years, his work has dealt with personhood and the family; ethnicity in postcolonial contexts; the relationship between symbolic thought and social power; and ethnographic theory. He carried out fieldwork in Portugal, southern China (Macau) and northeast Brazil (Bahia). Recent publications include World: an anthropological examination and papers on participation (2018, Anthropological Theory 18(4)), metapersonhood (2019, JRAI 25), and on embracing vagueness (2020, HAU 10(3)).

14 MARZO 2022
16.00 - 18.00
CLE - AULA A1
DIRETTA WEBEX

INTRODUCE
ROBERTO BENEDEUCE
DISCUTONO CON L'OSPITE
ANDREA FILIPPO RAVENDA
SIMONA TALIANI